a) Word Reading – Decoding	Develop their phonological awareness, so that they can: - spot and suggest rhymes	Read individual letters by saying the sounds for them	Pupil can apply phonic knowledge to decode words: e.g. high, hand, cream, park.	Pupil can read fluently, decoding is secure: e.g. Pupil can, without undue hesitation, read text at Phase 6.
	Develop their phonological awareness, so that they can: - count or clap syllables in a word	Blend sounds into words, so that they can read short words made up of known letter– sound correspondences.	Pupil can speedily respond with the correct sound to graphemes at Phase 5 L&S	Pupil can automatically and accurately blend alternative sounds for graphemes: e.g. know alternative phonemes for /er/: ir as in girl, ur as in turn
	Develop their phonological awareness, so that they can: - recognise words with the same initial sound, such as money and mother	Read some letter groups that each represent one sound and say sounds for them.	Pupil can read accurately by blending taught GPCs at Phase 5: e.g.coach, morning, cried	Pupil can, accurately, identify syllables within a word containing alternative sounds for graphemes. They can usually combine them to read a word: e.g. unicorn, gingerbread, handkerchief.

Hitherfield Primary School Progression Framework for: English Reading

	Read a few tricky words matched to the Little Wandle phonic programme.		Pupil can read words with almost all common suffixes: e.g. enjoyment, sadness, careful, hopeless, badly.	Pupil can apply their growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes (etymology and morphology) as listed in English Appendix 1, both to read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words they meet. (See Word Expert Sessions)	Pupil can apply their growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes (etymology and morphology) as listed in English Appendix 1, both to read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words they meet. (See Word Expert Sessions)	Pupil can apply their growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes (etymology and morphology) as listed in English Appendix 1, both to read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words they meet. (See Word Expert Sessions)	Pupil can apply their growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes (etymology and morphology) as listed in English Appendix 1, both to read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words they meet. (See Word Expert Sessions)
	Read simple phrases and sentences made up of words with known letter-sound correspondences and, where necessary, a few exception words.	Pupil can read most common exception words at Phase 5: e.g. their, people, asked.	Pupil can read almost all common exception words noting unusual correspondences: e.g. mind, pretty, prove, would, whole (see Appendix 1: Spelling pg 59).	Pupil can read a range of exception words with confidence, explaining the links between spelling and sounds where these occur in the word.	Pupil can use their understanding of unusual spelling-sound correspondences to choose the most appropriate pronunciation of a word: e.g. business, medicine, separate, surprise.
	Re-read these books to build up their confidence in word reading, their fluency and their understanding and enjoyment.	Pupil can read words containing taught GPCs and -s, -es, -ing, -ed, -er and -est endings.
		Pupil can read most multi-syllable words containing taught GPCs at Phase 5, e.g. December, measurement.	Pupil can read most familiar words quickly and accurately, without overt sounding and blending.
		Pupil can read words with contractions: e.g. I'm, I'll, we'll , and understand that the apostrophe represents the omitted letter(s)
		Pupil can read aloud phonically decodable texts at age-appropriate level (Phase 5) e.g. bookband level orange/turquoise or equivalent.	Pupils can read aloud books closely matched to their improving phonic knowledge, sounding out unfamiliar words accurately, automatically and without undue hesitation
		Pupils will re-read these books to build up their fluency and confidence in word reading.	Re-read these books to build up their fluency and confidence in word reading.

d) Word Meanings	C&L Use a wider range of vocabulary.	C&L Use new vocabulary in different contexts	Pupil can usually draw on their existing vocabulary to speculate on the meaning of new words they encounter and explain the link they have noticed: e.g. Pupil knows the meaning of tooth and brush and reads compound word toothbrush, deducing its meaning.	Pupil can discuss and clarify meanings of words usually linking new meanings to known vocabulary: e.g. painkiller, blackberry, invisible.	Pupil can usually use a dictionary independently to check the meaning of words they have read, but can require prompting to do this.	Pupil can independently use a dictionary to check the meaning of words encountered in reading.
e) Understanding	Engage in extended conversations about stories, learning new vocabulary.			Pupil can usually discuss the order of events in books and explain how items of information are related.
			Pupil can usually ask and answer 'how' and 'why' questions about what they have read and know where to look for information	Pupil can demonstrate their understanding by drawing unprompted on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher.	Pupil can usually independently monitor reading of age-appropriate texts for sense, self-correcting if they have misread and discussing the meaning of new or unusual words in context: e.g. foul (filthy) and foul in sport, foul play in crime.	Pupil can usually independently monitor reading of age-appropriate texts for sense, self-correcting if they have misread and discussing the meaning of new or unusual words in context: e.g. lunchtime monitor, computer monitor, monitor the temperature. f) Inference	Engage in extended conversations about stories, learning new vocabulary.	C&L Listen to and talk about stories to build familiarity and understanding.	Pupil can discuss the link between events and the text title: e.g. when discussing the title and events around the book 'We are Going on a Bear Hunt', pupil might comment: 'It is a good title because the children looked and looked everywhere for bears. When you hunt you look everywhere.'
			Pupil can demonstrate simple inference: e.g. Pupil identifies who is speaking in a story: 'It must be Mr Gumpy who tells them to come for a ride another day because it is his boat.'	Pupil can usually draw inferences based on what is being said and done.	Pupil is beginning to draw inferences from their independent reading of age-appropriate texts, often correct but not always fully supported by reference to the text.	Pupil can, with support, draw inferences from their independent reading of age-appropriate texts and explain thinking, returning to text to support opinions when prompted.	Pupil can draw inferences from their independent reading of age-appropriate texts and explain thinking, returning to text to support opinions.	Pupil can draw inferences from their independent reading of age-appropriate texts and explains thinking, routinely returning to text to support opinions.
				Pupil can usually modify their inferences by answering and asking questions.
g) Prediction	Engage in extended conversations about stories, learning new vocabulary.	Talk about stories - recall, discuss characters and say what might happen next	Pupil can usually predict what might happen with responses linked closely to the story characters, plot and language read so far:	Pupil can usually predict what might happen with responses linked closely to the story characters, plot and language read so far: e.g. I think Sophie is going to get all mucky because she gets too close to the animals and nobody will want to sit next to her on the bus going back to school.	Pupil can usually read 'between the lines' when independently reading an age-appropriate text and draw on their experience of similar texts to predict what might happen next, usually identifying clues the writer has planted for the reader.
